October 11, 1955

Dear Alumni, Former Students and Friends:

Just as parents breathlessly await Christmas as a time of reunion with their "grown-up" children, so we at Lincoln University look forward eagerly to our annual Homecoming.

To us, you represent our "grown-up" children, and, remembering back on the days when you came to us as eager young Freshmen, we are proud to welcome you back as men and women who have taken your places in the world and are making a mark for yourselves in your various fields of endeavor.

We take special pride in your achievements because we feel that we have contributed much to them, and we await the chance to exchange news with you.

We want to hear how you've grown, and we want you to see how we've grown, too.

We're certain you'll recognize the New Look the moment you set foot on the campus, and we're just as certain you'll be pleased and proud of the fact that your alma mater is keeping pace with the times.

We know you'll be eager to roam around the campus and note the things that have changed since you were here last -- and even more particularly, to note the things that have not changed. You'll be glad, we know, to find the same old spirit of hospitality and warmth that goes just as well with the New Look as with the old.

But most of all, we want you to know just how glad we are to have you back on the campus again.

Sincerely yours,

Earl E. Dawson

LU's TERROR TACKLE YOUNG . . .

Hefty 207 pound tackle, Lawrence Young is 1955 captain of the Lincoln team.

Coming from Pittsburgh, where he graduated from South high school, Young attributes his knowledge of football to his sandlot days as a youngster in the steel city.

At Lincoln he is a physical education major and a history minor, and member of the Varsity L club and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Lawrence has been tabbed as the "Tiger Terror" because of the viciousness with which he charges. After graduation in June he plans to try his hand at professional football, if lucky enough.

Meet The Squad Leaders

TSU's TRICKY "D" . . .

There is very little doubt that Marvin Durden is one of the most praiseworthy linemen in the Southwestern Athletic conference. A hard tackler and a terrific blocker, the 187 pound Beaumont senior has been a standout in the TSU Tigers' forward wall for three years.

Last season an opponent ball carrier was tackled by "Tricky D" and was separated from the ball. His explanation: "If a runner is Durdened, can he help it if he gives up his burden."

LINCOLN, O LINCOLN!

Lincoln, O Lincoln!
We thy proud children are;
Thou art our guiding star—
Lincoln believe.
Ours are hearts that yearn for thee
No matter where we be;
Morning, noon, and always, we
Are Lincolnites.

Thy name, O Lincoln!
Shall e'er to us be dear:
Thy mem'ries sacred, near
Hold us to thee.
Thy honors ours shall be,
Thy cause when just shall we
With loyalty defend—
For thee we'd die.

Lincoln, O Lincoln!
We thy proud children are;
Our hearts, both near and far
Love thee with delight.
No matter where we are,
Whether present, absent far;
Morning, noon, we always are
TRUE LINCOLNITES.

It Will Be The 90th Anniversary Observance of Lincoln University

1866 - 1956

Formal education has become an essential element in the social structure of American society. Lincoln University stands as a citadel of learning in the middle west serving as a well-spring of culture for the people of Missouri.

The observance of FOUNDER'S DAY (Sunday, January 15, 1956) is one of the highlights of the year at Lincoln. You and your friends are invited to visit the campus often, participate in the varied program and benefit from the offerings throughout the year.

Join us in the annual observance of re-dedication to the present and expressed objectives of the FOUNDING FATHERS this year. Your presence and support will be welcomed.

Join us in the training of those who may become "Broadminded and cosmopolitan in outlook — progressive (in the) elimination of bias, localism and narrow nationalism".
