HEAD COACH Dwight T. Reed (center), a native of Saint Paul, Minnesota, took charge as coach of football and track at Lincoln University in 1949. He formerly played varsity football at the University of Minnesota on the “Golden Gophers” in ’35, ’36, and ’37, when they were twice voted national champions and conference champions. His coaching experience has included three years at the former Louisville Municipal College in Kentucky. This year he begins his 18th season as football coach at Lincoln. During his lifetime coaching period he has accumulated 106 victories, 62 losses and 6 ties.

ASSISTANT COACH Jonathan L. Staggers (right), a veteran of 15 years of coaching, joined the Lincoln staff in 1962 as Line Coach. He came to Lincoln from Claflin College in Orangeburg, South Carolina, where he was head coach. He attended school at Virginia State College and at New York University. At Lincoln, Coach Staggers doubles as Basketball Coach.

ASSISTANT COACH Don Hudson (left) easily fits into the Lincoln athletic program. A sincere student of the game, he served on four varsity football teams at Lincoln as a quarterback. He received his graduate degree from Springfield College in Massachusetts and served as Dwight Reed’s assistant from 1955 to 1962. From 1962 to 1966 Hudson coached at Manual High School in Kansas City.
